

Explanation of Previous Australian Visa Refusals

Applicant: Dinh Thi Lan Anh

Date of Birth: 19 October 1977

Passport No.: E01370203

Date: 24 March 2026

Dear Visa Officer,

I am writing to provide a full explanation regarding the two previous refusals of my Australian Visitor (subclass 600) visa applications in 2024 and 2025.

On both occasions (applications lodged in 2024 and on 18 September 2025), my visa was refused because I did not satisfy the requirements of the Migration Regulations 1994 – specifically, the decision record indicated that I had not demonstrated sufficient ties to Vietnam or adequate incentives to return after a short visit. At that time, my financial evidence and business documentation were limited, which led the officer to have concerns about my temporary intent.

I fully respect those decisions. Since then, my personal and financial circumstances have significantly strengthened:

- I now hold 1,700,000,000 VND (approximately AUD 95,000) in a 6-month term deposit with Agribank (confirmed 13 March 2026).
- I own a residential land title (sổ hồng) and a Mazda CX-5 vehicle registered in my name.
- My husband and I operate a registered household business (Hộ kinh doanh Lan Anh BGG) with consistent tax payments and additional income from a 14-month car rental contract (98A-417.39).
- I am married with two dependent children (born 2009 and 2018) who are currently studying in Vietnam, and we all live together in our family home in Bắc Giang.

My current trip is a short 10-day/9-night tourism package (9–18 June 2026) to attend the FIFA World Cup 2026 matches in Toronto, Canada. I have a detailed itinerary, return air tickets, and full pre-paid accommodation. This is purely for leisure and to fulfil my long-held interest in football – I have no intention of remaining in Canada or any other country.

I now submit much stronger evidence of my ties to Vietnam and my genuine temporary purpose. I respectfully ask you to consider this updated information when assessing my Canadian visitor visa application.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I am happy to provide any additional documents if required.

Sincerely,

Dinh Thi Lan Anh

Phone: +84 37 222 6878